Dear Mr. Rockley,

Because of the generous support of our donors, like you, and our continued commitment to artistic excellence in our theater, gallery and educational programming, the Arvada Center has emerged as one of the largest multidisciplinary arts centers in the nation.

We are grateful for your 2011 in-kind contribution of seven (7) loaned pianos and other miscellaneous short term equipment rentals, including delivery and tech work. Please consult with your tax advisor for more information on the tax-deductible amount of your in-kind gift. According to IRS regulations, donors are not allowed to declare the value of their donation from our acknowledgment. However, the Arvada Center would likely have had to expend approximately $39,150 for the above items donated as an in-kind contribution. These are dollars saved which we are able to apply directly to support the various programs at the Arvada Center.

With only 50% of our revenue coming from ticket sales, the Arvada Center relies on both financial and in-kind donations to support our programs that engage nearly 350,000 visitors each year. You can take pride in knowing that your in-kind contributions to the Arvada Center impact thousands of people with our live theater, concerts and dance, free gallery exhibitions, children's theater and hundreds of classes.

Once again, thank you for your generous support and commitment to enriching our community with art, culture and educational programs.

Sincerely,

Clark M. Johnson
Chief Operating Officer & Interim Executive Director
