With your gift, you are making a bold investment in hope--the hope that through the University of Colorado's teaching, research, and service, we can make the world a better place, together.

And in every corner of the university, on each of CU's four spectacular campuses, we're working hard to honor your faith.

We're pursuing learning and teaching initiatives in a breathtaking array of subjects, promoting discovery and innovation in research labs, fostering community and culture through arts and athletics, and improving health and wellness with new preventive measures, treatments, and even cures.

Donors like you strengthen our position as one of America's most highly regarded comprehensive universities, and one of Colorado's top economic engines. Thank you for your investment in our students, faculty, and staff, and for your contribution to the vitality of Colorado and beyond.

Sincerely,

Rick Lawrence
President and CEO, University of Colorado Foundation
