Dear Friends,

Thank you for your recent gift to the Friends of UNO School of Music Fund. Your generosity is creating more educational opportunities for students at the University of Nebraska at Omaha.

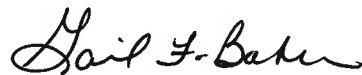

UNO has grown into one of the premier metropolitan universities in the country, and this growth is possible because of your support. The College of Communication, Fine Arts and Media (CFAM) has become exponentially stronger since uniting the School of Communication, School of Music, and School of the Arts, and students and faculty are making an impact at local, national, and international levels. Omaha's vibrant cultural scene and creative community offers CFAM's students a city-wide campus to practice their craft. Studying in the state's most diverse and metropolitan city provides students with opportunities they won't receive anywhere else in Nebraska.

As Omaha, UNO, and CFAM grow, we continue to attract and nurture young talent and a nationally known faculty of commissioned artists, award-winning musicians and designers, professional actors and directors, published authors, and working journalists. Your gift is greatly appreciated by students, faculty, and staff. Thank you for supporting the University of Nebraska.

Sincerely,

Lauren Van Buskirk
