Dear Tobin Rockley:

Thank you for your donation of the use of 15 musical instruments including acoustic pianos and digital pianos to the Community College of Aurora's music department for the 2009-2010 school year. The College appreciates your support and commitment. Your gift will have a tremendous impact on this institution and the lives of many of the 10,000 students we serve annually.

This letter serves as your receipt for the donated use of the acoustic pianos and digital pianos, which qualifies as a charitable donation. It is the donor's responsibility to determine and substantiate the fair market value of the gift with the IRS. Please consult your tax advisor for specific details. A federal tax provision requires that donors of $250.00 or more must retain a receipt for gift substantiation purposes. The College acknowledges that a minor amount of service in the form of rent for 3 days on campus (which the College determines to be worth approximately $300.00 in total) was provided as partial consideration for your contribution.

Again, thank you for your generous gift!

Sincerely,

Richard Maestas
Vice President for Administrative Services
Community College of Aurora
