Dear Rockley Family Foundation, Inc.,

We are grateful to have alumni and friends like you who are willing to make gifts to our excellence funds. The excellence fund provides the dean and department chairs with the educational tools they need to keep our students current in this fast-paced technological world we live in.

Thank you for caring about the education of others, and setting an example for others to follow. As you have requested, your donation will be placed in the Music Excellence Fund and used accordingly; your receipt is attached to the bottom of this letter.

Sincerely,

Randy Van Deven
Vice President for University Advancement

Please retain this receipt for your records
