Dear Tobin,

Thank you for your recent gift to UD. Your investment in the Department of Music helps support the people, programs and facilities that embody our strong tradition of excellence.

The generosity of donors like you is evident throughout our campus—in the academic achievements of our students, the reputation of our faculty, the champion spirit of our student-athletes, and the breakthrough discoveries of our researchers. Thank you for providing the resources they need to succeed and for your commitment to our collective future.

Sincerely,
