Dear Mr. Rockley,

On behalf of Fort Worth Opera, I write with sincere appreciation for your in kind gift of five piano rentals as well as their delivery and service for our festival. You gave the gift of musical magic. Your generosity is at the very heart of what we do, and our ability to produce the highest quality opera festival after festival.

Since its founding over six decades ago, Fort Worth Opera has striven to be a leader in fostering a thriving arts community across North Texas. We continue to thrill audiences with a power and majesty of performance that only opera can deliver, while inspiring the imaginations of children across the state with our wonderful education outreach programs.

Please know that your contribution of support not only reflects a belief in us and the ongoing business of Fort Worth Opera, but also in our artistic future as we continue to tell stories that push the frontiers of great artistic expression. Our beloved donors are an integral part of our quest for programmatic excellence, and our prominent place as a valued member of the Fort Worth arts community is due to your dedicated philanthropy.

Thank you again for your dedication to Fort Worth Opera!

Warmest regards,
Darren K. Woods
General Director
