Dear Tobin,

On behalf of San Diego State, thank you for your gift from the Rockley Family Foundation to support the School of Music and Dance.

Your investment helps SDSU build on the excellence already in place at our university. Thanks to you, the School of Music and Dance will continue to offer invaluable resources and opportunities that will help our students achieve at the highest levels. Your support is essential in maintaining a challenging learning environment that fosters student success and helps provide transformative educational experiences.

Your contribution is a meaningful investment in our next generation of students and leaders. Again, thank you for your support.

Warm regards,

Leslie Schibsted
Associate Vice President for Development
