Thank you for supporting the work of the University of Colorado Anschutz Medical Campus.

The University of Colorado will make a substantial related use of this gift and has not provided any goods or services in exchange for your contribution. Please consult your tax advisor with any specific questions or concerns.

If you plan to complete an IRS Form 8283 to substantiate your gift deduction, please submit the completed IRS Form 8283 and a copy of the qualified, third-party appraisal, to the CU Gifts-in-Kind Helpdesk at GIK@cu.edu.

In the event that the University of Colorado sells, exchanges, or otherwise disposes of property valued at $500 or more within 3 years after the date of receipt, CU will file IRS Form 8282 (Donee Information Return) with the IRS and provide the above-stated donor a copy of that form. This acknowledgment does not represent agreement with the claimed fair market value.

The University of Colorado is a qualified organization under section 170(c) of the IRS Code. The University of Colorado is a state institution under Section 115(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. It exists by virtue of authority granted it under the Constitution of the State of Colorado. The University, therefore, is exempt from Federal taxes, because it is a branch of the State Government as defined in the Internal Revenue Service Code. No questions have ever been raised by the Internal Revenue Service with reference to the University's exemption from Federal taxes. The legal name of the University of Colorado is the "Regents of the University of Colorado".

In compliance with IRS directives formulated because of the Tax Reform Act of 1969, the University has filed form 4653, in which it is assigned to the governmental unit category. The University has received a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service that it also qualifies as a Section 501(c)(3) organization and is not a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, because it is described in Sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(ii) of the Internal Revenue Code.
