Dear Rockley Family Foundation,

Thank you for your recent gift to the Music International Tour. Because of your level of generosity, we consider you one of the growing number of elite donors known as the President's Circle. Your investment makes a vital difference as I lead Vanguard University in our mission to pursue knowledge, cultivate character, deepen faith, and equip students for a Spirit-empowered life of Christ-centered leadership and service.

You are joining President's Circle at a pivotal time for Vanguard:

- This year, our students are attending classes and community-wide events in the Freed Center for Leadership and Service, our new three-story 61,000-square-foot dynamic learning and athletics facility at the heart of campus.
- The Patty Arvielo School of Business and Management will launch later this year to equip students to become excellent business leaders with strong character who will make a positive impact in a complex and rapidly changing world.
- The Global Center for Women and Justice continues to educate our students and the community on preventing and countering human trafficking, including the Live2Free student club, the Women and Justice minor, and the Anti-Human Trafficking Certificate.
- Vanguard Athletics has begun its second year of provisional membership in NCAA Division II, which means that our student-athletes are playing this year in the highly competitive PacWest Conference while balancing a strong commitment to academics.
- This past year, we launched Our Future, Together: Vanguard University Strategic Plan and Ascend 2030: Our Strategic Vision for Academic Renewal, better positioning Vanguard for our preferred future.

Thank you for being a Visionary for Vanguard University this year!

With much gratitude,

Michael J. Beals, Ph.D.
President
